From Tuesday March 3. to Saturday March 7. 1712.

St. James's, March 6.

THIS Evening Monſieur Bonet, Reſident from Pruſſia, had a private Audience of Her Majeſty, to notifie the Death of the late King, and the Acceſſion of his preſent Majeſty of Pruſſia; to which he was Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Madrid, Febr. 13. N. S. The Count de Bergeick hath been employed ever ſince his Arrival here, in ſettling the Affairs of the Revenue, in which he hath already made conſiderable Regulations. The Prince of Santo Buona ſet out on the 9th for Cadiz, and from thence he is to proceed to Mexico, being conſtituted Viceroy of that Kingdom. The Princeſs his Wife is made Lady of the Bedcamber to the Queen. The Mareſchal de Berwick having cauſed the Magazines at Rozes and Gironne to be filled with Ammunition and Proviſions of all kinds, is gone to Paris. He hath left ſeventeen Battalions, together with ſome Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons in the Lampourdan, under the Command of Count Fiennes. The Prince of Campo Fiorito and Count Pinto, Brother to the Duke d'Oſſuna, are likewiſe gone to the Court of France. The Correſpondence between this Kingdom and Portugal is again eſtabliſh'd. His Majeſty's Troops are gone into Quarters in the Kingdom of Valentia, and on the Frontiers of Catalonia, by which it is believed there will be no Action in thoſe Parts till Spring.

Venice, February 24. N. S. The Magiſtrates of Health haye reduced the Quarentine to be perform'd by thoſe who come out of the Empire and Hungary by Land, to eight and twenty Days. Moſt of the Pruſſian Troops have paſſed the Po, and are arrived in the Dutchy of Mantua, from whence they are preparing to march through the Veroneſe into Tirol. They write from Rome, that the Pope was ſomething better, but he could not be prevailed on to diſpoſe of the vacant Places in the College of Cardinals; and it was thought he would decline the holding a Conſiſtory, till the arrival of the Electoral Prince of Saxony, that he might be preſent at the Promotion of the Perſon recommended by the King his Father. Signor Alexandro Grimaldi, Envoy-Extraordinary from Genoa, was come to adjuſt the Differences between the Pope and that Republick, about the Friar Granelli. A Brother of the Cham of Tartary hath been at Rome for ſome Days: He had the Privilege of wearing his Hat and Sword in Audience he had of the Pope, who received him with great Marks of Civility. He was converted to the Chriſtian Religion in Spain ſome Years ago, but the occaſion of his Journey to Rome is not known. Upon the arrival of an Expreſs from Paris, with the Reſignation of the Biſhop of Ypres, a Congregation was immediately called, and Monſieur de Montmoranci, a Frenchman about twenty eight Years old, was made Biſhop of that See. Signor Inghiranni, Secretary of the Congregation of the Riti, and Canon of St. Peter's, died lately, in the Eighty firſt Year of his Age.

Vienna, February 25. N. S. His Imperial Majeſty hath appointed Count Taun to be Vice-Roy of Naples, Count Slick to be Chancellor of Bohemia, and Count Thurheimb to be Commiſſary-General of War. Cardinal Schrottenback is arrived here with a great Retinue from Moravia, as is likewiſe the Count d'Atalaya, General of the Portugueſe Troops, from Catalonia; and the Prince de Hohenzolern, Colonel of the Imperial Regiment of Cuiraſſiers from Hungary. The Prince of Wirtemberg is ſet out from hence, in order to return to his Government of Landau. The Communication is again opened between this City and the Counties of Oldenburg, Eyſenburg, and ſome other Places which were ſuppoſed to have been infected with a Contagious Diſtemper, that we are aſſured is now entirely ceas'd. Orders are likewiſe given for ſhortning the Quarentine of thoſe who come from more remote Countries. Our Letters from Adrianople brought very different Accounts of the Affairs of his Swediſh Majeſty, who continued ſtill at Bender, and it was very uncertain when he intended to leave that Place.

Hanover, March 7. N. S. On the 1ſt Inſtant the Czar arrived in this City, and was ſaluted by the Canon from the Ramparts. The Elector, accompanied by the Electoral Prince, and Duke Erneſt, went above a Mile out of Town to meet him, and brought him in his own Coach to the Court, where an Apartment was prepar'd for him. He went immediately to make a Viſit to the Electreſs Dowager, who, accompanied with the Electoral Princeſs, received him at the Door of her Antichamber, and from thence conducted him into her Cloſet. The next Day he dined in publick with his Electoral Highneſs. In the Evening there was a Comedy to entertain him, and afterwards a Ball, at which his Majeſty danc'd. On the 4th he ſet out from hence at ſix in the Morning: The Elector, the Electoral Prince, and Duke Erneſt, accompanied him to his Coach. He din'd at Borgdorff, and went from thence to Soltzdal, where he was met by the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, who came from Brunſwick to receive him. Yeſterday he left that Place, in order to continue his Journy to Petersburg. He is attended only by his Chancellor and two General Officers, and his Guard conſiſts of twenty Muſcovite Dragoons. Major General Groet is come hither from Berlin, to notify the Death of the King of Pruſſia. On the 5th he had an Audience of the Elector, and the ſame Day the Court went into Mourning. This Day he had an Audience of Leave, and to Morrow he intends to return homewards. His Electoral Highneſs hath named Major General Hamerſtein to make his Compliments of Condolance to the new King. Monſieur Fabrice, who was lately Envoy to the Czar, is appointed to go with the ſame Character to his Daniſh Majeſty. We are aſſur'd that the King of Pruſſia hath already retrenched ſeveral Penſions, and disbanded the Swiſs Guards, and that he is making ſome other Regulations, by which he will be in a Condition to maintain a greater number of Forces at his own Expence, than any of his Predeceſſors have ever done. Yeſterday's Letters from Holſtein bring an Account, that the Allies have block'd up Tonningen, and that the King of Denmark being informed that the Swediſh Deſerters retire to Wiſmar, hath given Orders that for the future all thoſe who come from his Enemy's Army, ſhall be ſent into Jutland. Advices from Conſtantinople ſay, that the Sultan was returned thither from Adrianople, that the Muſti continued to oppoſe the War againſt the Muſcovites, and that the Grand Vizir was in danger of being Depos'd.

It being Her Majesty's Royal Intention to Touch publickly for the Evil on Tuesday the 17th of this Instant March, and so to continue for some time; it is Her Majesty's Command, that Tickets be delivered the Day before at Whitehall, and that all Persons bring a Certificate sign'd by the Minister and Church-Wardens of their respective Parishes, that they never received the Royal Touch.
